

BU10000

BU1000 | UPRIGHT BIKE

Bikes are still one of the most used machines in fitness facilities. Its comfort, together with a universal exercise as cycling, make them mandatory in any gym.

The completely new design will increase the visual impact of the equipment in the facility. Organic shapes and matt textures create a machine as impacting as efficient.

▲ OPEN ACCESS. The BU1000 has been designed with all users in mind. Thus, its open frame design allows a full access even for people with reduced mobility.
